EDITORIAL

The last couple of years has seen some surprising no.1 albums, including new studio albums by Neil Diamond and Bob Dylan, and a compilation of Vera Lynn hits (released to coincide with the sixtieth anniversary of the start of World War 2). It seems we are once again going through a period when the singles and albums charts are diverging.

When the album chart started in 1956, it tended to be full of theatre cast and soundtrack albums plus a smattering of albums from swing acts predating rock & roll. Of course, albums were not only more expensive, but in a climate where 78 rpm singles dominated the market, which teenagers could actually afford the new record players capable of playing 33 and 45 rpm records? The concept of making an album—opposed to a collection of singles and covers—didn't really exist. It was Frank Sinatra who realised the potential when he recorded his seminal SONGS FOR SWINGING LOVERS in 1956. And it wasn't until later in the Fifties that jazz musicians such as John Coltrane and Miles Davis realised the artistic potential of the album.

This dichotomy continued until the Beatles came along. PLEASE PLEASE ME was the first home-grown million-selling album, but it was WITH THE BEATLES that was presented as art. There were no singles on WITH THE BEATLES. By 1960 the 45 rpm single had overtaken the 78 rpm single, and within a few years the older format was phased out. Still expensive albums were beyond the pocket of most record fans, and to cater for them record companies started to release EPs: 45 rpm records that contained four album tracks. A twelve track album could be issued on three EPs. But by 1966 fans were buying albums and EP sales started to decline.

In 1967 the market changed again. Led by the Beatles, Stones and Bob Dylan, more acts realised that the album gave them an opportunity to broaden their horizons. The concept album was born when the Beatles released SGT. PEPPER in June. Pop had become rock and its outlet was the album. As album sales increased singles sales fell, and singles were marketed to a younger audience. You all remember the Monkees, but do you remember the Ohio Express or the Kasenetz-Katz Singing Orchestral Circus? “Bubblegum” was music for the early and sub-teens, but because it had no substance it didn't last, exiting the charts when SUGAR SUGAR by the Archies (a non-existent, cartoon group) became a worldwide best-seller.

As rock became “progressive” it became more esoteric, and although successful, acts like Emerson, Lake & Palmer and Yes had lost the sheer enthusiasm and fun that created rock & roll in the first place. Then along came the likes of David Bowie, Roxy Music, Marc Bolan and Slade and the singles and albums markets were more or less united again. Thus we saw the establishment of a cycle. Every few years the singles and albums markets separated only to be reunited again by the likes of Punk, New Romantics, Grunge, and Britpop.

In the Noughties, though, something different is happening. Technology has always driven forward changes in popular music, and the iPod and its like are just the latest advance. It's my generation who listen to CDs—all the way through usually—whereas it's the kids who are into downloading. For once, it is not the price of the new technology that is the stumbling block. To use an iPod you have to be computer literate, and that is the challenge for the older generation. On the other hand, downloading albums just hasn't taken off. It's too slow, for a start. But that will change as the speed of broadband increases.

So those commentators who claim that the album is dead (and who were raising gravestones for the single a few years ago, before downloads were permitted to chart) are wrong. Once downloading albums becomes commonplace, the scope for artistic interpretation of what an “album” is becomes unlimited: as long as you like; as many tracks as you like; “mashed up” albums; multiple collaborations. Or how about albums that are really timeless: not in the sense of being classics but never completed, always changing, tracks being re-recorded, replaced even. The future of the album is going to be interesting.

PREVIOUS BOOKLETS

Readers might like to know that this booklet is the latest in a series that began in 1983. From 1983 to 1995, the annual CHARTWATCH summary booklet was compiled by David Longbottom from the charts published in RECORD MIRROR and MUSIC WEEK. Up until early 1991, this means a Top 100 singles and album chart. The demise of RECORD MIRROR in 1991 meant that both charts were reduced to a Top 75. In 1996, Tobias Zywiets took over compilation of the booklet, and used the charts in HIT MUSIC which extended the MUSIC WEEK charts to a Top 200. All previous booklets, incl. the new version for 1995, are available from:

www.chartwatch.co.uk or: Chartwatch, 34 Brybank Road, Hanchett Village, Haverhill, Suffolk, CB9 7WD, UK

The booklets for 1985 to 1994 cost £2.00 each, from 1995 onwards they cost £2.50 each. Similar summaries have been produced for the years 1961, 1962, 1963, 1964, 1965, 1966, and 1967, but including only singles charts; these are £1.20 each. A summary booklet for the 1983 singles chart, but without chart runs, is available for £1.40, and a similar booklet for 1984, but including both singles and albums charts, costs £1.50. Please use PayPal or send a cheque (in Pound Sterling) made payable to “Chartwatch” and crossed “a/c payee”.

1 Introduction

This work is based on an analysis of the official British sales charts compiled by THE OFFICIAL UK CHARTS COMPANY (formerly CHART INFORMATION NETWORK), as published by trade paper MUSIC WEEK and independent chart newsletter CHARTS+PLUS. It covers all 26,000 chart positions for the 3,108 records and tracks to appear during the 2008 chart year: 1,361 singles, 1,041 artist albums, 335 compilation albums, and 371 budget albums.

All charts are compiled by MILLWARD BROWN for OCC, Copyright © 2008 OCC LTD., London. Scoring system: ZSRPS₂₀₀₇. This analysis is Copyright © 2008–2009 T. Zywietz, Neulingen. The scoring system CWSRPS is Copyright © 1981–1996 Chartwatch, Ilminster. The scoring system ZSRPS₂₀₀₇ is Copyright © 1996–2007 T. Zywietz, Neulingen.

It should be noted that the point scores are not comparable across the various charts, i.e. a single with 500 points may have registered quite a different number of actual sales than an album with a similar score. The scoring system is constructed primarily to make comparisons for the same chart between various years.

A diamond (◇) denotes a budget album, a club (♣) marks a compilation album.

Date of Entry refers to the date when a record entered the charts for the first time, even when climbing from a position outside the scope of this work. For records entering before the start of the chart year, Date of Entry refers to the last time the record entered or re-entered the chart. An asterisk (*) denotes either an uninterrupted chart-run at the start and/or the end of the chart year, or (when positioned in front of the date) chart action prior to 2008.

A record's chart run is not broken, even when absent for more than four weeks. A separate run is only established when a record is re-issued with a different catalogue number and/or on a different label, or when charting as a download that cannot be reasonably linked to a previous (physical) chart record. Exceptions from this rule are made where appropriate.

Scope of the present work:

- UK Combined Singles Top 200: 12.01.2008–3.01.2009
- UK Artist Albums Top 200: 12.01.2008–3.01.2009
- UK Compilation Albums Top 50: 12.01.2008–3.01.2009
- UK Budget Albums Top 50: 12.01.2008–3.01.2009

The first chart of the year 2008 is dated 12.01.2008 (compiled from sales data for 30.12.2007–5.01.2008 and published on 6.01.2008). The chart dated 5.01.2008 is based 100% on sales from 2007. The 2008 chart year has 52 weeks.

For some entries I list a sales figure. This data refers to the total number of units sold by record companies to retailers (trade deliveries)—not actual 'over the counter' sales to customers (retail sales). These trade delivery figures are certified (only on request of the record company) by the BPI – BRITISH PHONOGRAPHIC INDUSTRY LTD. to its members as follows:

	for singles:	for albums:
★ Platinum	600,000 units	300,000 units
● Gold	400,000 units	100,000 units
○ Silver	200,000 units	60,000 units

I have included all certifications awarded until the end of January 2009. Please note that my data is only complete for entries that either have (re)entered the Top 75 or were certified since 1994.
